are over, each member of the championship team is allowed a day or two on his own with the trophy.

Mark Messier and the Oilers celebrated their fourth Cup by taking Stanley to a strip club. Last summer the Cup golfed with Detroit's Darren McCarty, went boating with Martin Lapointe and toured Moscow with Slava Fetisov, Slava Kozlov and Igor Larionov.

But Stanley hasn't always had it so good.

He has been drop-kicked into canals, dumped in a snowdrift, dirtied as a makeshift flower pot. He nearly drowned at the
